Code of Conduct

Your conduct is a direct reflection of the University. As a mentor you will be a role model for our new students. You are expected to be honest and unbiased in your interactions with our new students. Additionally, you are expected to promote Missouri S&T with enthusiasm and genuine feelings. If a mentor is under the influence of alcohol or using drugs while working, the mentor will be replaced and further action may be taken by the Office of Student Affairs. We hope that you view this opportunity as a chance to facilitate personal enrichment and complete it to the best of your ability!

We cannot express our appreciation to you for giving us your time and talents!

By checking below, you are signifying that you have read the above statements and will be able to comply with ALL of them.
